

Worldwide Capabilities

Larkin Hoffman routinely advises and represents business leaders from around the world. Our franchise and distribution practice is widely known within the industry for advising multinational franchisors. Attorneys in our international transactions and compliance practice help clients expand businesses overseas, comply with U.S. laws and regulations and help foreign businesses enter the U.S. or expand U.S. operations. Our intellectual property attorneys advise clients on how to patent their innovative ideas and protect brands, trademarks and copyrights in the U.S. and worldwide.

We are also proud to be the Minnesota member of the State Capital Group, a global network of over 147 preeminent independent law firms with more than 12,000 attorneys representing 81 countries around the world. As a member of this group, Larkin Hoffman has access to local and regional practitioners across the globe. This global network provides an effective and trusted resource for identifying local counsel around the world.

Access to this global legal network allows Larkin Hoffman and its clients to:

- Obtain legal advice from multiple jurisdictions quickly
- Coordinate regional legal services effectively
- Reach decision makers in every capital city in the United States and capital cities and major business centers around the world
- Organize a multi-jurisdictional legal team
