

Bankruptcy Litigation

The Larkin Hoffman Bankruptcy practice group specializes in the areas of bankruptcy, debt relief, debt restructuring, workouts, reorganizations and related litigation, including preferences and fraudulent transfers. We represent all interest holders in all types of bankruptcies and workouts, including extensive experience as Chapter 11 counsel. Our team's transaction expertise also includes the purchase and sale of insolvent companies and corporate reorganization outside the bankruptcy process.

Our knowledgeable team represents both debtors and creditors in financial disputes, whether in negotiating a deal between creditors and debtors, litigating collection matters or filing for Chapter 11 bankruptcy when warranted. We also have experience in matters regarding corporate debt restructuring, bank negotiations and business transactions.
