Tyler W. Hartney

Tyler Hartney represents business organizations, business owners, and private clients in a wide variety of business litigation matters. He advises clients through the complex litigation process.

Prior to joining Larkin Hoffman, Tyler worked as an associate attorney in mass tort/toxic tort practice and as a Judicial Law Clerk for the Honorable Francis J. Magill in the civil division of Minnesota's Fourth Judicial District.

Tyler also gained invaluable experience counseling and representing clients in court as a student attorney and director of the Robins Kaplan Civil Practice Clinic during his time at the University of Minnesota Law School where Tyler earned his law degree.

While in law school, Tyler also served as the lead web editor of Minnesota Journal of Law, Science, and Technology and received the Outstanding Editor of the Year award for his performance.
