

Mergers and Acquisitions

---

The Larkin Hoffman mergers and acquisitions team leads clients through the complex legal and business issues that develop during mergers and acquisitions.

Whether we are assisting individuals in buying or selling closely-held businesses or negotiating public company transactions and consolidations, clients benefit from our deep experience. Our team is involved in all phases of transactions, including designing, negotiating and assisting with transaction structure, due diligence review, document preparation, regulatory approvals, financing, and closing.