Brandon O. Strickland

Brandon Strickland is a communications specialist and junior lobbyist with a background in labor and workforce development funding. Brandon will be working with commerce, bonding, and health and human services clients. Working with Margaret Vesel, he is responsible for regular client communications, committee monitoring, and meeting coordination.

Prior to joining Larkin Hoffman, Brandon spent five years working in politics in both the public and private sectors. After graduating from North Dakota State University with a B.A. degree in political science, Brandon assisted with the Jeff Johnson (Minnesota) gubernatorial campaign in 2018 working under Donna Bergstrom as her media contact. He then moved to the Minnesota State Senate as a committee page. After his page experience, Brandon worked under Senator Mike Goggin (Red Wing), and Senator Eric Pratt (Prior Lake) who chairs the Jobs & Economic Growth Finance and Policy Committee.
